“ To Anamischa and the Craddieth Family,

*I offer my sincere condolences and prayers of strength during this time. I only knew Craddieth as a pure gentleman and a good spirited man who carried himself with integrity. He was smart too, because he chose a beautiful woman of integrity and strength as his wife. I pray that they had an adventurous journey together and will one day meet again for part 2. With all my love and respect.

To SGM Craddieth family and friends. You all have my sincere condolences and prayers. I served with SGM Craddieth with in the 75th Training Cmd here in houston tx. And not once can I recall not seeing him with smile on his face. A true leader that always had time to lend and ear or provide advice to his young warriors. Only a few leaders at his level are willing to do that. He was one of kind and well truly be miss. But well never be forgotten. SGM Craddieth stand tall and strong when you arrive at st. Peter's gate. We have your watch now. God bless you and we'll meet once again in the future. ARMY STRONG.
