

Rev Cassandra Melvina Mack-Brown

August 11, 1950 - May 18, 2025

No obituary found for this tribute.

Tribute Wall

AH

“ Cassandra aka M.O.M. (My other mother) has been in my life and a part of my family since 1986 (39 years)! We shared alot with each other and I am truly going to miss her. I will cherish our last phone conversation and her encouragement towards me on my spiritual journey. My heart is broken that I didn't get to see you just one more time but the memories will last forever.

I'll never forget how you were so tickled the day you found out I was born the same year as your son. You just laughed and laughed. You spent a whole month with us when my dad passed away and we had a beautiful time. Please give Jimmy a big hug and kiss from me.

Al thank you for sharing your mother with me all these years. I love you both and you are in my thoughts and prayers. Until we see each other again I'll end this the same way we end all our conversations...love ya bye!!!

Love, Adrian Hill (A.D.)

Adrian Hill - June 07, 2025 at 11:40 AM

LW

My deepest sympathies and condolences to you and your family. Rest easy queen.

LeNora Wilcox - June 08, 2025 at 07:35 PM

DF

“ I'm truly sorry for your loss. I wish I got the chance to know her better but I do know she loved her some Albert Joseph Brown III. The way she would lite up when you walked into her room was priceless. I hope you can find comfort in all those special moments and memories. Love you and I'm always praying for you!

Deborah Fletcher - June 05, 2025 at 06:41 AM