“ Here’s a heartfelt post you can use:

Thinking of you, cousin Dexter, as we laugh and reminisce about all our childhood Thanksgivings and the countless memories we’ve shared over the years. From the cooking adventures to swapping recipes and the endless laughter around the table, those moments will always hold a special place in my heart. You are truly missed, and as we gather this year, your spirit will be with us in every story and every dish. Love you always!

“ I just found out why you weren't responding Dex. I found our last text and I wish I had responded. I almost just popped up at your apartment to get in your face. My heart hurts ..but I know I'll see you again. Thank you for the laughs.. the arguments ..and the safe place that it is knowing you.

“ Rest in Peace Dexter, a wonder friend and colleague, working with you was a great experience. I am grateful for your positive attitude and uplifting spirits when anyone felt low in the office. Not only were you great to co-workers you were a wonder MS to our members especially those having a hard time, but you also always made sure to make our members smile or laugh at least once throughout calls. Although you are no longer with us your memory is carried throughout the team. We will forever miss you and hold you close. - with care Luz
