“ Sister Doris was a true missionary for Christ. She walked the walk and she talked the talk. She was the perfect example of a woman of God. She had a smile like an angel. I've known Doris all my life, I think our best times was at Old Saint Phillips Missionary Baptist Church. I miss her already.

Derek, Casey, Brandon, don't ever forget what your mom taught y'all and share it with all the generations to come. We love y'all. God Bless!

“ We honor the heart of our Banks family—our matriarch, Doris Ann Banks-Lewis whose love was the foundation upon which our generations stood. Her wisdom guided us, her strength protected us, her light, and spirit emanates through us. Though she has left this world, her legacy of kindness, love, family, and unwavering devotion to her faith in Christ our Lord will echo in our lives forever. We are who we are because of her, and we will carry her spirit forward with gratitude. Rest well, beloved matriarch ~ forever in our hearts. 🙏❤️

Ms. Doris came into my life and left footprints on my heart ❤️ that I'll never forget 💔. She was the first driver I had when I started FBISD as a monitor. From that day, she was a special person in my life. She'll truly be missed 😭, but I'll forever treasure the memories we shared.

“ Mom, thanks for being the amazing God-fearing woman we all love. Thanks for accepting everyone without strings or stipulations. Your constant empathy, compassion, forgiveness, strength, and encouragement toward all walks of life will be greatly missed. You truly never met a stranger. Thanks for touching my life and being an unconditionally loving mom for 29 years towards me (wow, this time flew). Thanks for being a fantastic mother to my husband and your firstborn, Deric. The love and respect he has for you is what I have always admired and respected. Thanks for loving your granddaughters more than life and helping us raise them to become the extraordinary young ladies they are. I will miss our regular calls and our girl's road trips. From your ENTIRE extended Johnson family, we say “THANK YOU, and we LOVE YOU.
