“ Jerome and I were classmates and graduated together from Interactive College of Technology. I also invited him to Shekinah Christian Fellowship Church where he became a member and was a faithful usher even from his wheelchair. He was a delightful person, and very encouraging to others. He is really missed. Family know that Jerome was an inspiration to others to do better, because he was always on time for service riding Metro. He used to tell me, "If I can be on time having to depend on METRO LIFT, then the people that live near to the church have no excuse". We know you are out of the wheelchair now my brother. Your Shekinah family miss you.
