“ A110 for Life!

Lauren, myself, & another good friend of mine (Otesha) became roommates during our time in college at ETBU. We quickly formed a close & genuine bond & looked out for each other like family. Us three were always together, so much so that everyone just started referring to us as A110 on campus. A110 was our apartment # at the dorm hall we stayed at. We also had the largest apartment in that dorm hall, thanks to Mrs. Cynthia for pulling some strings to make that happen, so everyone loved hanging out at our apartment. Two other ladies in particular though, Paigen & Trelle, visited & hung with us so much, that they became our adopted plus 2 to the A110 crew. Together it was us 5, stuck like glue. Lo made friends with so many people on campus, due to her loud voice & laugh, cheerful/playful spirit & big smile. So we would often have our blended network of friends over & from time to time, have friends dinners, which of course Lauren wanted to be the head chef/cook in the kitchen lol...granted, my girl could throw down & loved food lol. We always had a good time!! Lots of jokes & laughter, singing, dancing, friend dinners/get-togethers, play fighting, dressing up, parties at the local HBCU Wiley, visiting each others friends & family back home, etc. Lo's connection with knowing so many people, brought so many people together from everywhere. She loved knowing and meeting our friends & family. She would introduce to us, her friends & family. Eventually everyone would become friends & family...two of the most important things Lo really valued & didn't play about. That's our girls legacy.

Us 3 remained roommates & Paigen & Trelle stuck with us. All 5 of us, remained thick as thieves until each one of us graduated. We kept a text group chat & linked up as often as we could, even though we all lived in different cities after college. Nonetheless, We kept up with each other & stayed in contact, up until Lo left us on earth.

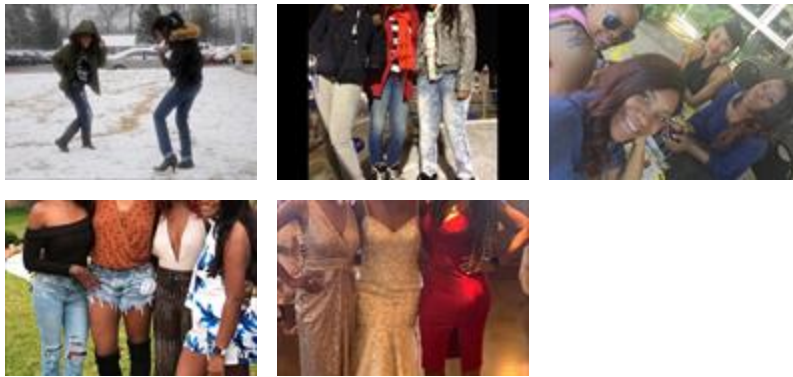

There are soo much more memories I could share about our dear friend, but it would easily become a book.

We are grateful for the time we had with Lo & thankful that the best gift life gives us, is all the memories! We will hold on to them forever.

A110 may be no more here on earth without our girl Lo, but it's forever & always A110 in our hearts.

We love you Lo! We most definitely miss you! But get your rest! Forever That Girl!

-A110

“ As I look at the pictures of this beautiful young woman, I am reminded of the little 4 year old girl who stayed glued to her mommy’s side. Watching her with her mother was like watching synchronized swimmers, whenever Mom moved, Lauren moved.. I will always cherish those memories.

Fly high sweet angel..To the family, your are in my deepest thoughts and prayers...
