“ I moved to Miami in 1973. Lois was one of the first people I met. We attended the same High School and became good friends. She was one of the kindest and most honest people I've ever been lucky enough to meet.

After High School she went to College in Alabama and I went to New York. She came to visit me and I attended her College graduation.

Although we were distant we always kept in touch.

My deepest sympathy to the family. Words can't describe how sorry I am for your loss. Thinking of you all at this most difficult time.

Heaven is a place of peace and love where God is surrounded by other heavenly beings. Lois Williams Johnson is one.
