“ I can't think of you and not smile. Your strength & encouragement inspired so many others. Your generous heart was always unlimited. You showed us how to make a way when it seemed impossible. You were a fighter that got knocked down, put got right back up because you never gave up. You will be truly missed, but never forgotten. You'll live on through the lives that you touched for generations to come. Love always...

“ Lonnie mom will always be with you. You will always remember how it felt to laugh with her and be loved by her. I pray those memories will bring you some comfort . You were a comfort to your mother. I know you are sad at this time but I hope you feel good about the way you were there for her Over these past few years . I'm asking God to give you perfect peace at this time. Love you, Daisy Walker.
