“ God rest Uncle Phil...im gonna try and watch at 11...of course im at work but that's break...growing up on Bennett court back in the day Uncle Phil stood out to me cause he was with Aunt Pat, one of my fine as frog hair aunts..but he has swag tho...real smooth cat...I dug that..he taught me about "working"..and the responsibility of it..he gave me my 1st paid job..paint the garage of the older couple that lived across the street..the Chapmans i believe..Bobby remembers names, I remember details..lol..but the thing of it was, he gave me the brushes and paint but because he was a busy cat, he paid me 10 dollars in advance..that was wild bread back then, a whole pair of uptown pro keds..iykyk..he put so much faith in me i had to do my best I felt..I remember that feeling to this day..crazy thing was he never checked back on me, never checked my work or critiqued it to the family..on some real ish...I don't even remember he and I even discussing it to this day..lol..it taught me responsibility and reason at a very young age I understood the assignment..and I keep it with me..Thank you Uncle Phil..God Rest you...
