“ I just wanna first say I'm thankful for meeting such a god fearing man. The talks we had when I was dealin with the family issues I had, how he treated me and my sisters like his own. I'm truly grateful for the advice and tough love he gave me and I'm thankful for coming in contact with such a beautiful soul and family . My prayers and condolences go out to the family 🙏

“ Robert, your cousin/big sister going to truly miss her cousin/little brother. I am going to miss your smiles, jokes, singing, phone calls, texts, etc. We may not talk every day or every week, but whenever we talked we always had amazing conversations. At the end of every conversation, we always said “I love you”. There is only one thing I regret, we would always say we need to get together soon and not see each other at a funeral. I know it’s going to be extra hard for Sharon but your kids are going to take good care of her, because they are doing it now. God and their faith will get them through this difficulty time. Plus they have you as their guardian angel now. I will be there for them whenever they need me. Rest in peace little brother. 🙏🙏🙏
I love you. Mary Taylor Woods

“ Mr. Jones was probably the funniest person I've ever met. One day he came into the dealership for service and the service advisor called him Mr. Johnson. Mr. Jones corrected him and said "Its Jones, Johnson is a different Plantation". The guy was just standing there and of course I was crying laughing. I've told so many people that story. I appreciate the good times Mr. Jones.

“ Mr. Robert will be greatly missed! Him and his family have been such a blessing and great encouragement throughout the years. They played a vital role when my daughters lost their grandmother, which was a neighbor for many years. We are praying for Mrs. Sharon and their family. He definitely loved them and took great care of his family. I pray God's love, peace, comfort, and strength in this season.
